

INTERACTIVE PODIUM

presenstation™ 800F1

4K | EM Technology | Capacitive Touch
For teaching and presenting while staying connected to the room.

keep your eyes on your audience
and your ideas front and center.

The PresenStation 800F1 is designed to help you stay present while you write, draw, navigate, and respond in real time—using your fingertips or a stylus on a responsive capacitive touchscreen.

Everything stays in front of you, so interaction happens face-to-face with your audience, not behind a screen.

 QOMO®

write, speak, share. never look away.

big screen? bigger screen? entire wall?

The PresenStation 800F1 moves your content from display to display—even entire walls—with no change in how you teach, speak, or present. Slides, annotations, and visuals appear exactly where you expect them to, whether you’re working with a monitor, a large display, a full-wall surface—or to infinity.

ergonomic by design.

Includes an angle-adjustable ergonomic table mount for comfortable positioning during use, along with VESA mounting options that adapt easily to different room layouts.

Multiple connection options—including HDMI input and output, USB-C, and USB extenders—make it easy to integrate the PresenStation into existing rooms.
