 QOMO®

share without breaking the flow.

Some of the most important ideas are the hardest to show—a detail on a page, an object on a table, a sketch mid-thought.

QOMO's wireless sharing and capture tools make it easy to bring those moments into the room instantly and clearly, without interrupting the rhythm of teaching, presenting, or collaborating.

When sharing is effortless, the focus stays where it belongs—on the idea, not the setup.

cast without joining the wifi.

Everyone—even guests—can share content without hopping onto the network. QShare 110 keeps casting simple and accessible, so ideas can move freely without logins, permissions, or delays.

turn any display into a sharing hub.

Designed for moments when ideas need to travel across the room. QShare 110 keeps sharing smooth and dependable, even as people move, devices change, and conversations evolve.
